What to Do After You Lose Your Job

November 16, 2026
Separate what you need to clarify today from what can wait until you’re ready to look for work.

Should You Relocate for a Job?

November 16, 2026
A move changes two budgets: what it takes to get there and what it costs to stay. Compare both before you accept.

How to Review a Project That Didn’t Go to Plan

November 16, 2026
Run a short project review that compares plan with outcome, separates facts from guesses, and ends with one testable change, not blame.

How to Make a Case Study Without Sharing Private Details

November 16, 2026
Tell the story of a client project with useful detail while protecting private information, using written permission and careful editing.

How to Run a Small Website Usability Test

November 16, 2026
Watch three people try one task on your site, fix the biggest blocker, and retest. A small usability test that needs no lab or special tools.

How to Choose Your First Business Tool Without Buying Too Much

November 16, 2026
Test a business tool on real work before you buy it, and set a date to keep or cancel, counting the cost of switching and export.